

Dear FCC members. I live in a rural community, and want you to know that a diverse media is essential to the social well being of my life. Do not vote to allow a few large multi national corps own and thus control the media. It is not a good idea to deregulate the control of the communications sector of our country for economic reasons. Please consider the emotional and intellectual isolation of consolidated media will bring to many of us,